

Ontario's Mental Health & Addictions Strategy

Children & Youth - Winter 2015/16 Update

more than 50,000

additional children and youth are receiving services.

 = 5,000 Children & Youth

more than 770

new mental health workers have been hired in communities, schools and courts.

 = 77 Workers

$425million

in safe schools and equity and inclusive education to support school boards and school communities.

more than 1,000

post-secondary students a month using a province-wide helpline dedicated to mental health supports for post-secondary students.

Expanded

eating disorders treatment services, including inpatient, day treatment and outpatient programs.

31

31 lead agencies have been identified and work continues in the remaining two service areas. All lead agencies are expected to be announced in 2015/16 as part of our Moving on Mental Health plan to strengthen the mental health system, delivering what children and youth need, when they need it, as close to home as possible.

Launched

Ontario's youth suicide prevention plan to help communities better respond to young people in crisis.

more than 1,000

additional psychiatric consultations per year through an expanded and enhanced Tele-Mental Health Service for kids in remote, rural and underserved regions.

18

Service Collaboratives improving access and transitions for vulnerable children and youth across health, social and justice services.