SHAWN GINWRIGHT, PHD

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Shawn Ginwright is one of America's leading innovators, provocateurs, and thought leaders on African American youth, youth activism, and youth development. He is Professor of Education in the Africana Studies Department and a Senior Research Associate at San Francisco State University. Dr. Ginwright is Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Flourish Agenda, Inc., a national nonprofit consulting firm, whose mission is to design strategies that unlock the power of healing and engage youth of colour and adult allies in transforming their schools and communities. Dr. Ginwright currently serves as Chairman of the Board for the California Endowment whose mission is to improve the health of California's underserved communities.

DWAYNE MORGAN is a two-time Canadian National Poetry Slam Champion. He began his career as a spoken word artist in 1993. In 1994, he founded Up From The Roots entertainment, to promote the positive artistic contributions of African Canadian and urban influenced artists. Dwayne is the 2018 winner of the Sheri-D Wilson Golden Beret Award for Career Achievement in the Spoken Word. He has published 13 books, and his audiences have included President Barack Obama and Governor General Michaëlle Jean.

KIM NINKURU is a multimedia artist from Bujumbura, in Burundi, currently residing in Toronto. She uses performance art, installation, video, spoken word, and movement to create pieces that give her the chance to explore and express rage, love, desire, beauty, or pain in relation to her own body and mind. Her work heavily questions our preconceived notions of gender, race, sexuality, and class. It is grounded in the firm belief that Blackness is past, present, and future at any given moment.
